

Become a Member of the St. Albert Historical Society

In becoming a member of the St. Albert Historical Society you will join an organization dedicated to the preservation and promotion of the history and heritage of St. Albert and the surrounding area. Past achievements include four historical publications, the restoration of the St. Albert Mission bells, the commissioning of "The Buffalo Hunt" public artwork, the development of Founders' Walk in conjunction with the City and the installation of interpretive storyboards. The Society has a membership of over 100 strong with members throughout Canada.

Member benefits include receiving the Society newsletter, The Echoes, discounts at the Musée Héritage Museum gift shop and eligibility to serve on the Board of Directors. Membership in the St. Albert Historical Society is unrestricted other than to support the objectives of the Society.

The St. Albert Historical Society is a registered charitable organization and will issue a tax receipt for any donation over and above membership fees.
